Appl.No.09/973,626
Amdt. date Jan. 15, 2003
Reply to office action Oct. 16, 2003

RENEWED PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.137 (b)

To;
Commissioner for Patents

Sir;

Applicant John D. Taylor, believes that the Commissioner for patents can clearly see, from the passed history of the applicants, that the applicants, after many correspondence with the Patent Office, that the applicants was never untimely (accept once, being Oct. 16 ,2003 to a Office action) and this one time the applicants untimely reply was clearly unintentional. I did not know how to reply or respond to , at the time, to the Office action of the examiners and I did not understand, and was not versed in any manner of the Patent Laws at the time.

I alone bare the responsibility, for the untimely reply to the Office action of Oct. 16, 2003, and am the only one to blame for the untimely response reply to the examiners. In other petitions that I have filed, I tried to give the reasons, of why I failed to reply timely. I made a mistake by not responding to the Office action that was purely unintentional. I regret and I am sorry for the untimely response to the Office action, the examiners, and my son; for I am the one responsible. I ask the Commissioner for patents for forgiveness, and allow applicant to make amends. And allow applicants to continue with their Patent application and revive the application from a abandonment that was unintentional. I don't know what else to do accept ask for forgiveness for my mistakes that was "unintentional".

Honest & Sincerely
Respectfully Submitted
